

A Moment with Matt...

Dear Church Family,

In a Discipleship Journal Article written from the Lausanne Committee for World Evangelization in May of 1981 on the topic of praying for the world, one section included praying for missions. I want to share that excerpt with you:

How to pray for missions

- Pray for the right strategy in these days of explosive change. Some missions are so inflexible they cannot adapt to new circumstances or make use of new opportunities. Some missions have outlived their usefulness.
- Mission leaders need God's wisdom in these days of stress, for such tasks as goal-setting, selection and placement of personnel, overcoming personality problems, dealing with sensitive governments, and maintaining good relationships with home churches.
- Pray for the wisest use of resources. Guidance is needed for the best use of time, money, and energy.

Please be praying for missions around the world and for our mission strategy at Parkway Baptist Church. I love you and thank God for you.

In Christ,
Bro. Matt
